

Patent Risk Indemnification Insurance

- ✓ Extends coverage to your customers
- ✓ Cost-effectively enables the transfer of indemnity obligations
- ✓ Caps multi-party exposure to patent infringement risk

RPX Indemnification Insurance offers policies where both a supplier and its customers are covered if either or both are sued for patent infringement. This is also a valuable tool for investors, trade associations, and any other parties with a vested interest in limiting their customers and/or affiliated companies' patent risk.

Indemnification Solution Options

Basic Indemnification

Expands technology supplier's RPX insurance to cover contractually indemnified customers

Subsidized Insurance
